MURDER MOST FOUL.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN THE COCKADE CITY.

A Negro Deliberately Shoots and Kills His Wife-A Painful Accident an Engineer-Marringes-Per-

PETERSBURG, VA., December 3-(Special.)-The fourth murder which has occurred in Petersburg within almost as many weeks was committed here this victim in this care being colored. If the murdered Coleman Toran, and they could have as easily caught the man who to-day deliberately shot his wife to death—if probably they do not have more sympathy for the murderer than for the victim.

The other two murders referred to are those of William F. Malore Killed.

are those of William F. Mallory, killed by Richard Harris, and William M. Woods, of Washington, killed on a Norfolk and Western train in this city. THE MURDER TO-DAY.

THE MURDER TO-DAY.

Matthew alias Doc. Jones (colored) shot and killed his wife. Lucy Jones, about 2:38 o'clock. Jones, who is a brakeman on the Arlantic-Const Line, went into the sore of Mr. C. L. Seyler, on Halifax street, and hired a breech-loading gun from him, at the same time getting ten shells, loaded with No. I shot.

ing gun from him, at the same time get-ting ten shells, loaded with No. 4 shot. He told Mr. Seyler that he was going out to shoot at a mark. Last Saturday Jones and his wife had a quarrel, and Jones broke up nearly all the household furniture. His wife left home, and went around on Harding street and took up her residence with her

Jones has been very low spirited since his wife left him, and after getting the gun to-day he went to his father's house and old him that he was going to kill himself. His father and brother. Buck, himself. His father and orother, buck, told him that he must be a min, and tried to cheer him up. Finally Jones left them, teiling them to look out for his baby after he was gone. Jones's brother followed him a short distance, but Jones stopped him, teiling him to go back home and mind his own business, and not to interfere with his. Jones then walked quietis down Federal street and brough an alley to Hallfax, thence to Harding Jones asked: "What is the reason that you did not come to me when I called you?" She re, led: "Because you told Mr. Parham to tell me that you would kill me on sight." She had hardly finished her speech when Jones broke in upon her, with the remark: "Then, do you. I will carry out that threat"; and raising the gun to his shoulder, he fired directly at her. She fell acreaming on the back porch. Jones then walked up the back porch. Jones then walked up to where the woman was lying-face downward-and deliberately fired the other load into her back. The first shot took effect in the upper part of the left arm, near the shoulder, nearly severing the member from the body. The second shot took effect in the small of the back, making a wound as large as a man's hand.

Jones reloaded his gun and started out towards the street, and noticing several colored people coming in the direction of the house, he waved them back with the gun, warning them not to attempt to come near him. He then started on a run up Harding street, and when last seen was in the woods in Prince George was in the shooting became known a large number of persons started in pursuit of the murderer.

The woman died at 4:20 o'clock.

MATRIMONIAL.

There was a pretty home wedding this morning at 220 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, on New street, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Zelia Jones and Mr. L. C. Vaughan, Rev. Mr. Carroll, paster of Wesley Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rebecca Jones, a sister of Mr. R. O. Jones, one of our most popular and successful merchants, and is a most lovely woman. The groom is a telegraph-operator, employed in the office of the Atlantic-Coast Line railroad, in this city. The couple left on a bridat tour south, which includes a visit to the Atlanta exposition.

WAITE-YOUNG. WAITE-YOUNG.
This afternoon at 5 o'clock, at Grace Episcopal church, Miss Eliza E. Young, daughter of the late J. William Young, was united in marriage to Mr. Harrison Waite, Jr., in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and acquaintances. Rev. John Ridout, rector of the church officiated. Mr. Samuel T. Wilson acted as best man, and, the following young gentlemen—the first two of whom are brothers of the bride—served as usters; J. M. Young, R. M. Young, W. S. Young, and Marion Peebles.

TO BE TRIED FOR MURDER. TO BE TRIED FOR MURDER.

In the Mayor's Court this morning the case of the Commonwealth vs. Lewis Oliver alias Patterson, who is charged with being an accomplice of Richard Davis in the unprovoked murder of Coleman Toran, two weeks ago, came up for examination. The evidence brought out was decidedly adverse to the accused, and the Mayor decided to send him on to the Hustings Court for trial, without bail. The wife of the murdered man's brother testified positively that the accused was the man who cried out three times, "Hit him!" just before the fatal blow was struck. It is known that Richard Davis is the man who struck the fatal blow, but it is also known that Herrings for 25c.

Best Layer Figs, 16c., or 3 pounds for 25c. Here is an opportunity of getting immething first class on exceedingly easy terms. It is well constructed, of the best material, and is in prime condition, wise, deep lot, and plenty of porch room fault and rear. Good space for flowers in front yard, and for vines and trees in back yard, with room to spare for a back for the Jersey. It is the good housewife's liked of a home.

At owner's request I will sell this PROPERTY on FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6th, at 430 P. M. at which time other advantages will be pointed out to you.

Remember, the exceedingly easy terms part. They will be better than you have probably ever heard offered before at an auction said. A kind of "fun for the boys, but death to the froigh" butthese. Don't fail to take advantage of the portunity, and don't forget about the terms.
